

TOM BARABAS LIVE

PERFORMED AND COMPOSED BY TOM BARABAS ON GRAND PIANO

Tom Barabas blends soulful sensitivity and passion in this flawless set of performances of some of his best-loved piano compositions. Recorded live across the country, from Manhattan to the Rocky Mountains, Tom takes instrumental music to a new level of intimacy and beauty. In the classic style of great, onstage performers, Barabas delivers a musically eloquent experience that builds rapport with his listeners and invites them to fall in love with his graceful streams of sound.

Tom Barabas fans call his music "stunning." And so it is.

"WITH JUST SOLO GRAND PIANO, TOM BARABAS HAS CREATED AN ABSOLUTELY GLORIOUS ALBUM THAT HIGHLIGHTS HIS VIRTUOSITY AS A PERFORMER AND ALLOWS HIS UNIQUE ARTISTRY AS A COMPOSER TO SHINE THROUGH." - TED COX, TOWER RECORDS, NAR REVIEWER

Tracks are drawn from performances at Red Rocks Amphitheater, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Atlanta Heartkeys AIDS Benefit Concert, and the Walton Center in Fayetteville, Arkansas. Tom has played many benefit concerts including the American Cancer Society, the American AIDS Foundation, and Heal the Earth As One. He explains, "My music is a gift from God. I feel my gift has to be shared and when I can play for a good cause and contribute to humanity, it is my way of giving back."

These tracks are in their original form and delivered with all the power and energy that only live performances can impart. Tom's talent as a consummate piano artist shines through in what is a quintessential and prismatic listening experience.
